WELCOME TO VANCOUVER

Vancouver has been a pioneer in the 'epicurean' movement and it is our cultural diversity that has led to it being recognized amongst the best culinary destinations in the world and recent addition to Michelin's exclusive roster. The city's award-winning chefs celebrate locally sourced ingredients and sustainable practices to develop creative and memorable cuisine.

After choosing which dining options most interest you, our Concierge would be delighted to assist with reservations. If you don't see what you are looking for, we would be happy to offer additional suggestions. Our Concierge can be reached at concierge.vpr@fairmont.com or call/text 604.695.5402

Bon appetit.

OUR TOP PICKS

We're spoiled for choice here in Vancouver, but the following 13 restaurants are our most recommended spots, blending a consistently exceptional dining experience with just enough creativity to keep you on your toes.

And while you may think we're biased about the first three, consider this: we're the only hotel in the city to have all three dining outlets recommended in the Michelin Guide to Vancouver.

BOTANIST

1038 Canada Place
botanistrestaurant.com

Located on the second floor of Fairmont Pacific Rim, Botanist is inspired by the principles of botany, and transports guests into a world where day blurs into night, summer into winter, and food and drink are plenty.

Executive Chef Hector Laguna's menu represents the best of the Pacific Northwest, where locally sourced ingredients are coupled with contemporary techniques.

MUST TRY

Hand-cut tagliatelle, a guest favourite that has been on the menu since opening.
